

THE DAILY APPEAL.

WEDNESDAY MORNING, JANUARY 27, 1858.

FOR late papers we thank Messrs. DAVIS, WILLIAMS & CO., of the Evening, and Mr. McKEEVER of The Adams Express.

TENNESSEE BOY.—The New York papers inform us that on Wednesday last, 1000 Tennessee Boys, 1890, sold at $75, and 2000 at $75.

BROWNSVILLE FEMALE COLLEGE.—This school, under the charge of Rev. W. Garrison, is still advancing. More than a hundred pupils are in attendance. The next session will commence on the 15th of February.

APPEALED.—W. O. Wadsworth, who was tried on Monday for subtorting negroes, has given the necessary bonds and appealed to the Common Law Court. He denies that he performed the negro in question with any violence.

ANOTHER TRIAL.—The Thomas case was held for trial on Monday, for shooting $20, was our old trial, and the contractor of the same said, "To whom ever Mr. Hoar, this explanation is unnecessary, but we chearfully make it at his request."

WE ARE REQUESTED TO STATE.—Messrs. CALLOWAY & PARKER will sell this morning, at 11 o'clock, on the corner lot on Main street, opposite their auction room, a lot of fixtures, Irish potatoes, one good dry mare.

GOD OPPORTUNITY.—By reference to our advertising column, it will be seen that Messrs. FRANKLIN & CO., grocers, offer their stock of groceries for sale and their house for rent. This is a good chance for an investment of this kind.

YESTERDAY.—Yesterday was dull, business was dull, the sun marked was dull, the sun above shone languidly as it were dull too. The only bright thing about town was the mud that spattered up with lively animation wherever horses and wheel-chair pikes among its perilous depths.

WE ARE INDEBTED TO MR. J. KENNETH MOTT.—The Editor of the Rambler, Va., has sent us a copy of the Thirty-first Annual Report of the President and Directors to the Stockholders of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, for the year 1857. The report shows a large increase both in the business and receipts of the road over the previous year. Mr. MOTT is the agent of the road for the Southwest, and we can recommend him to the favorable consideration of our friends wherever he may travel.

CONCEALED WEAPONS.—We again call the attention of foolish youths and others to the fact that they cannot, in this city, carry about them any pistol, revolver, knife, scimitar, or dagger, and that it is a criminal offense to bring them into a house or other place where they are found most advantageous to their interests. Alderman Lofland agreed with Alderman Martin that it was a question whether the road would ever proceed beyond the St. Francis river for the Arkansas people would certainly build it. One of their wealthiest counts, Polaski, had not yet paid his debt to the city.

Mr. Robertson, and he was assured, as soon as the road had passed the bottom, the people of Little Rock and other places would come up spontaneously to the road, for the benefit of the Arkansas people.

There had been strong opposition to the road, for the benefit of the Arkansas people, and was stopped and delayed. Nearly every town and state in the country, and especially in the South, was in a state of alarm. On the 15th the Arkansas delegates declared the independence of the state to the nation. Conover had assembled 2000 troops at the palace, which was fortified by the Arkansas people.

He arrested Gen. Jackson and afterwards released him, and then sent him to the prison in force of arms for the President—others were in favor of Santa Anna. On the 16th, Gen. Jackson was released, and was discharged from custody. Judge Conover returned to the city.
